Railway safety takes spotlight

Railway crossings were the main topic of conversation at the Tuesday night City Council meeting and although the talks were not prompted primarily by the Monday accident at Avenue K, it figured prominently in them.

Persuasive arguments by B. M. Flohr, superintendent for the Southern Pacific Transportation Company, convinced the Council that the company is now sincere in its efforts to help the safety situation in Hondo.

An in being so convinced Council rescinded an ordinance passed in January requiring trains to slow to 30 miles per hour going through Hondo. The ordinance was passed then but has not been in effect due to the fact it has not been published as required by state law.

Flohr, who appeared before the Council in February, presented information on costs of providing upgrading crossings and installing barriers. "At the February meeting we discussed the closing of crossings at Ave. J and Ave. O and upgrading the crossing at Castro (Airbase entry) with blinking lights and a barrier," Flohr said.

"With a gate and flashers the cost would be $27,960," he said. "SP agrees to pay $19,130 if the City of Hondo will pay $8,830."

The superintendent pointed out that there is a state program which pays 90 percent of the cost of upgrading railway crossings, but at this time there is no money in the fund.

Mayor George Brucks said, "I don't believe the City can afford $8,000 to get only one such barrier. If we can wait a few months to see if we can participate in the state program, then I am all for going that route."

In his presentation, Flohr pointed out he did not believe that lowering the speed limit from 45 to 30 would prevent any accidents. "The major cause of all railway accidents is negligence on the part of the vehicle drivers," he said. "This apparently was the cause of the Monday accident. The man thought, like so many persons have mistakenly thought, that he could beat the train. And the engineer of the train said he was going about 35 miles per hour."

Police Chief Jerry Williamson suggested the Council

Mayor says: 'Read'

Mayor George L. Brucks affixes his signature to a proclamation designating April 16-22 as Library Week in Hondo. The event will be observed Monday, April 17, by an Open House at the Hondo Public Library, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. Watching the Mayor do his bit to publicize this important week are members of the Library Board, Robert Peden, Morris Shelton and E. J. Chapa and Librarian Lottie Maw. Everyone is invited to the Open House.

Open House plans told for Hondo Public Library Week

The "Reading That Makes The World Go Round" can be found right here at home in the Hondo Public Library, and Library officials plan on proving it Monday evening when they host an Open House at the Avenue M facility.

Mayor George Brucks has proclaimed the week of April 16-22 as Library Week in Hondo and in doing so urged everyone to "drop by and visit one of the finest libraries in a town this size in Texas."

HELP! asked for on rain

"Let's start a cloud-seeding program now!"

This is the cry of area governments, organizations and many farmers and ranchers, and they made it heard all the way to Washington by sending the following telegram to Congressman Abraham "Chick" Kazen on Monday.

"Due to the extended drought in the Hondo and Medina County area, and in an attempt to avert a recurrence of the crop failure of last year, your assistance in initiating an immediate cloud-seeding program would be greatly appreciated."

The telegram was signed by: Hondo Chamber of Commerce, Harry Filleman, manager; Medina County Commissioners Court, Judge Jerome Decker; Hondo City Council, Mayor George Brucks.

every Hondo and area resident to come by for a visit Monday, April 17 from 4-5:30 p.m."

Librarian Lottie Maw agrees and she and the library board are planning on really "showing it off" to the public Monday evening from 4 to 5:30 p.m., when they host the cookie and punch affair.

The National Library Week program is now in its 15th year and in an effort to create a better-read, better-informed America by encouraging lifetime reading habits and promoting the wider use and fuller development of all types of libraries it dramatizes the year-round efforts of local libraries.

The Hondo Library opened on April 17, 1967 with 2,050 books. That year it boasted 775 membership cards and issued about 6,500 books and magazines.

On April 17, 1972--Monday when the library celebrates its fifth birthday with an Open House--the library will boast some 29,000 books and magazines issued to public. It has some 8,500 books on the shelves and 4,200 membership cards.

This year's observance of Library Week has dual themes--Reading Makes The World Go Round and You've Got A Right To Read. The latter directs public attention to the importance of literacy for our national progress and to libraries which, when used fully and supported properly, can make information accessible to everyone.

"We are proud of our library," a board member said, "and we invite, no we urge

Stretcher ready for use

People lift Howard G. Wilson of Kerrville to a stretcher at the scene of the car-train accident at Avenue K in Hondo. Wilson's car was hit by a SP train at about 12:30 p.m. Monday. The battered car can be seen in the background and thousands of candy orders are scattered over the area. Wilson, a candy salesman, miraculously escaped serious injury when the train slammed ed into his car and knocked it into the large signal stand near the track. He was wearing seat belts and Donald Muennink and Jesse Carreon cut him loose and pulled him from the car. Eye witnesses to the crash said Wilson pulled up to the tracks, slowed and then shot the gas to the car in an effort to beat the train. He didn't. But he did beat Death this time.

Camp Fire carnival

The annual Medina County Camp Fire Girl Carnival will be held Saturday at the Hondo City Park with girls from Hondo and Castroville taking part in the program.

The Carnival will be held from 5-8 pm, with a barbecue beef dinner beginning at 5:30. Dinner tickets are $1.50 and are available from any member of the Medina County Council of Camp Fire Girls or their leaders. Tickets will also be available at the gate Saturday night.

In addition to the barbecue dinner, traditional Carnival games and booths will be open. Booths will include, among others, a cake wheel with prizes for everyone, a fishing pond, plus giant balloons and food booths. All booths will be manned by Camp Fire members. Members of Hondo FFA have assisted in setting up the various booths.

Co-Chairmen for the annual event are John Wentz and Floyd Steubing. Cricket Amberson is heading the leaders.

The annual Camp Fire Carnival has been held each year since shortly after the Medina County Council was organized in 1949. All proceeds from the Carnival go toward maintenance of Camp Mary Louise.

Change in ballot box announced

Voters in Precinct One, Hondo, will vote at a new polling place in the May 6 Primary Elections. County Judge Jerome Decker announced.

The Precinct One voting place has been changed from the District Court room at the Medina County Courthouse to the Council Chambers at the Hondo City Hall. The change was made because of the better facilities at the City Hall and to eliminate the climbing of stairs at the Courthouse.

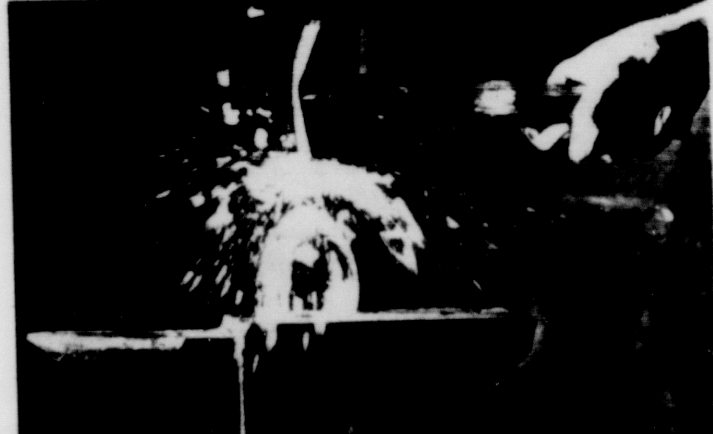

Housing Authority appointed

Five Hondo citizens were appointed to the newly created Hondo Housing Authority Tuesday night by Mayor George Brucks and were approved by the City Council.

They included: E. J. Chapa, Armando Dominguez, Fannie Ybarra, Charles Hackebell and Burnis Lawrence.

The Housing Authority members will hold an organizational meeting within three weeks and will then post intentions of entering into agreement with the City of Hondo for the purpose of working toward seeking housing.

In general terms, the Housing Authority will seek first a preliminary grant from the Housing and Urban Development -- or any other Federal unit that can help provide moneys and agreements for low rent housing for both the elderly and those persons needed such housing. This all will be accomplished over a period of time depending on the availability of funds from the Federal Government.

A CHANGE OF HEART

...by the Hondo City Council on the ordinance requiring trains to slow to 30 miles per hour through Hondo is a good proof of logic.

B. M. Flohr, superintendent for the Southern Pacific Transportation Company, proved to be both straightforward and helpful in his presentation concerning company efforts to improve safety measures along the tracks in Hondo.

He said, and I agree with him, that lowering the speed limit from 45 to 30 will not necessarily prevent accidents "as long as human beings are negligent at the wheel and insist on beating the train."

Close investigation of all train accidents will not completely absolve the railroads, but it would be an eye-opener to the public to see how many could have been prevented had drivers observed all rules of caution.

Flohr proposed erecting gates at the Castro (Airbase) crossing at a total cost of $29,960, with the company footing $19,130 and Hondo paying $8,300. But he then said that perhaps Hondo could receive aid from the state to pay for 90 percent.

This is the route the Council took and, as an indication of the cooperation which now exists between the City and the SP members rescinded the 30 MPH ordinance. Mayor George Brucks said, "I feel the company is sincere and we should do what we can to cooperate."

Gip Chapman's comment that in 11 years this is the first time that SP officials had ever bothered to come and talk about problems brought an answer from the 32-year-old superintendent:

"I only assumed my duties in December, so I cannot speak for the past. But I can assure you we will work every way possible with you from now on to make the Hondo-SP relationship a smoother one."

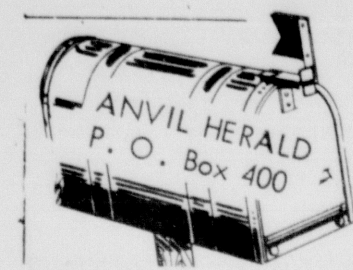

One action Flohr took recently solved

Letters from the mailbox

8 April 1972
Dear Friends in Hondo,
I am writing this letter not as a spokesman for the Roman Catholic Church, but as a concerned friend. I subscribe to the Anvil Herald and so keep up with the events in Medina county.

Like many in the community, I too was and continue to be disturbed by the pessimistic attitude which has developed over the recent city elections.

Hondo is a good community filled with great human potential. This potential will never be activated through division and hate. Because of the size of Hondo and the closeness of family ties, it would be a tragedy for the citizenry to allow the "heat" of political rhetoric to drive a wedge into the fellowship so necessary for a community to thrive.

It is unfortunate that a letter from Bishop Patrick Flores D. D. (Auxiliary to the Archbishop of San Antonio) to several men campaigning for public office, made its way into a controversial ad; it was encouragement by a private-out-of-town person, to work for better government. We live in a society which accepts and promotes separation of Church and State. This is right and proper in our pluralistic society - it cannot be otherwise. As a private individual, Bishop Flores is free to write to whomever he pleases; as a "spokesman" for the Catholic Church he is limited by the demands of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as he in conscience experiences it. It is my contention that Bishop Flores was writing as a private citizen and NOT acting in an official capacity as spokesman for the Catholic Church in support of certain candidates.

Let us never allow the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be REDUCED to a program for SOCIAL ACTION. Jesus Christ is never presented in the New Testament as social reformer or political activist. The principles he left us, however, clearly teach us our responsibility toward each other. We must LOVE which means to SHARE our spiritual, cultural and physical blessings. To be a Christian means to be a person "in service" to others. The greatest service we can provide others is not to give them of our wealth, but to show them their own.

Where there are OBVIOUS evils, the PEOPLE OF GOD must make its voice heard. It is so easy to hide behind lofty slogans; how many sins have been perpetrated under the guise of Christianity? The true spirit of Christ breeds PEACE and FELLOWSHIP not hatred and factions.

Please God, we will not let our experiences sour us. Let us accept each other as we are while still retaining the ability to disagree on certain vital issues. Political, like religious, preference is personal.

HOW we disagree is important. As committed Christians we do not possess the luxury of HATE nor may we resort to the human failing of ridicule. Let us not bury the proverbial hatchet, let us break up our swords and turn them into plowshares.

Dear Editor,
I know of at least three "Anglos," myself included who dared to defy the premise of white racism VS. "La Raza" racism as reported by Tom Santos in last week's Herald. And, indeed, if 3 Anglos crossed the line to vote split ticket, then 3 Chicanos also had to cross the line to counterbalance the Anglo split and justify Mr. Santos' statistics so eloquently (but not very logically) recorded.

Why don't we carry Mr. Santos' premise a step farther and list our ethnic origins at the time we register and then automatically have our vote cast throughout that election year for whomever is running who happens to be the same culture as we are? This would certainly eliminate the "Anglo block" as I am sure that Anglo would not politically be defined as non-Chicano.

It seems inconceivable that both sides on this city council election could have been so unchristian as to suspicion every move made by the opposition. As our so-called Christian community was participating in Easter Saturday services and the spirit of the risen Christ asked all His followers to unite with Him, half of Hondo was anxious to celebrate a Chicano victory and the other half was afraid to lose - both halves hating each other with equal fervor.

If this is truly "God's Country" as our Hondo sign proclaims, will someone tell me what happens to the commandment, "love thy neighbor?" What happened to trust in fellow man? Where did plain ole basic Christianity go? Why must we be classified as Anglo, Chicano, non-Anglo, La Raza, etc. and why must we be analyzed under these labels? If we would all exercise our right to vote as it was intended to be exercised - in a responsible and Christian way - we would not need labels, non-labels, and analyses because we would not base our vote on these unimportant factors.

It is time for Hondo to get back to the basics, and I can't think of a more basic ideal than Christianity. The true Christian rises above all boundary lines (especially racism) and sees a man in his true light and worth. In my opinion, these are the men we should like to see in office. Try it - we might like it.

"An Anglo whose ethnic background is more of a minority than the Mexican-American" (Name withheld by request)

Dear Sir:
I would like to compliment the Chamber of Commerce on their promotion of Texas Industrial Week and also thank them for the opportunity to participate in their program.
May, I also compliment the High School and Junior Hi Students for their kind attention at the Industrial Week presentation at their school.

Dear Mr. Lawrence:

Thank you for your coverage of the Open House to see the T37 Jet Trainer at the Hondo Air Base.

The radar system was equally as interesting and we were able to see where part of our tax money goes. But the most impressive part of our visit was talking to these fine, courteous, and intelligent men in uniform.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Redus

Dear Fritz,

A letter of thanks to you is long overdue. As president of the Hondo Garden Club, and as a citizen of Hondo I wish to commend the cooperation and the wonderful service you have given in keeping our city clean and beautiful.

Not only have you granted every request the Garden Club has made, but you have shown that you are deeply concerned in keeping the Highway 90 and the memorial Parks in fine condition.

It seems that all spring we have had a continuous clean-up campaign. Trucks are always picking up brush and limbs. The garbage collectors are also to be commended. They seldom spill anything, the lids are always put back on the cans, and the men never make any noise.

Now, if we could get the beer can throwers to be considerate we could drive along our streets and really enjoy our city.

Our sincere thanks,
Irene F. Marshall

Gentlemen:

Thank you very much for letting us know that our subscription has expired and if we would like to renew it. We shall be leaving Puerto Rico in May. We have decided that we are going to wait till we get to Texas and then renew it again.

We have enjoyed reading the Anvil Herald Paper ever since we have been here. It is nice to know what is going on in our hometown. We are sure that Hondo has changed a lot in 2 1/2 years.

Thanks again for everything.

some complaints. It seems the trains had been stopping on the main track while trainmen went to buy groceries. This has been stopped.

The superintendent said he would send pictures of gates being proposed and the Anvil Herald will cooperate fully to inform the public on what efforts are being made.

One thing I can say: So long as anyone tempts fate by ignoring track signals, they are flirting with death. That train is going to occupy that space on the track for about one minute whether you are on it or not!

PADDING FACTORY

. . .news seems to be good today (Wednesday). Fritz Leinweber told me that Gerald Alexander, factory manager, told him there would be a meeting with the railroad officials concerning the railroad spur. The meeting was set for this morning (Thursday).

So maybe everything is about to get off the ground. I don't know of any better news --except a three inch rain.

pass an ordinance so that police can give tickets for those people who run signs and lights at railway crossings--but the Council was lukewarm on this.

Antonio Garcia III pointed out: "This is a matter of priority with costs being the main factor. If you are worried about saving lives, I would say it would be better to pay $8,000 for a barrier than spend $6,000 for another cop." (Williamson had just won approval from the Council to hire another patrolman and purchase an additional car at a later date. That story is elsewhere.)

Mrs. Patricia Lawrence asked if the City couldn't put in an application for state funds and be around the top when moneys are available. City Manager Fritz Leinweber answered that this will be done just as soon as complete information is available on submitting the application. This information has been requested.

Councilman G. P. Chapman, who had pushed the 30 miles per hour ordinance through in January, said, "We have passed the ordinance and people want to know why we haven't enforced it. And until we get some protection I am dead set on the 30 MPH. I have been on the Council for some time (he previously served before going back on last year) and this is the first time the railroad has come to Hondo to talk. And it took the 30 MPH ordinance to accomplish this." He later agreed to holding off on the ordinance if the railway company and the Council could prove to the citizens that a sincere effort is being made to provide all safety possible.

Flohr contended that the "railroad was not asked to attend the January meeting so that it could present its side of the story. We started one month late on discussions to help the City remedy the situation."

that Flohr and the railroad at this time have indicated sincere interest in helping solve the situation and polled the Council on their feelings about rescinding the ordinance. It was rescinded.

The Superintendent told the Council that he would continue to work with them on any problem, and promised to provide the newspaper with pictures and information on gates that the company is proposing be installed.

LIBRARY BOARD
NAMES TWO

Mrs. Virginia Clift and Mrs. Norman Buescher were recently appointed to the Board of the Hondo Public Library. Mrs. Clift will also serve as chairman of the Membership committee.

Board members are Morris Shelton, president, whose term expires this month; E. J. Chapa, Gerald Hay, Bob Peden, Mrs. Clift, Mrs. Buescher and Mrs. E. W. Brucks.

Henry Dominguez, recently elected to the School Board of Trustees, tendered his resignation to the Library Board who accepted it with regret.

Have a ball plans talked at Monday Museum meet

All signals are GO for the launching of the third Museum Celebration Day in Hondo on May 6.

Chairmen of the various events met with the Board and Museum Celebration Day Chairman Burns Lawrence Monday night and went over the details on staging this fund-raising event.

The major change scheduled for the 1972 event will be the starting time for the festivities. They will begin at 4 p.m. at the National Guard Armory. This is a change from a morning beginning.

Antique and Collector Auction time remains the same--1 p.m. at the Museum. Chairman Fritz Leinweber says plans are coming along nicely with auctioneers Frank Helvey and Dave Foster both having agreed to handle the event.

"We do need more items for auction," Leinweber said. "Frank and Sis Graff and Cappy Heyen went on a buying trip this past weekend and brought back some excellent items, but we need more. So anyone who has any item to donate please contact us."

Mrs. Floyd (Doris) Saathoff reported the Country Store is progressing under the supervision of the Home Demonstration Clubs. We have commitments from several persons, but naturally we need more," she said.

Mrs. James (Barbara) Bohls said her sorority Epsilon Sigma Alpha voted to conduct the games booth this year and Board President passed our names for board members to contact for prizes.

Wentz also said this year the Museum will sell advance tickets to the barbecue chicken supper slated to begin at 5:30 p.m. on May 6. "Board members have tickets for sale, or interested persons can contact me or the Anvil Herald for them," Wentz said.

Other fun events discussed included the Future Homemakers of America ice cream booth. Board member Sherri Weynand reported the girls plan on making plenty of ice cream this year.

Also providing fun will be the Purple Petticoat Saloon, sponsored and run by the D'Hanis Lions Club; baseball dunk, run by the Hondo Future Farmers of America; soft drink stand run by Jerome Decker and Super Sav at the Museum; soft drink stand run by the Pruneda American Legion Post; hot dog stand, run by the Hondo Lions Club; Sidewalk Cafe, run by the Sigma Tau Chapter; Fish Pond, run by the Hondo Women's Golf Association; horse riding, run by Ernest Bende; hay rides, run by the Hondo Young Farmers; bunuelos and tamales booth run by a St. John's Church group; and an Art Show and Sale supervised by Mrs. Wilbur (Gladys) Lindburg.

Other possible concessions discussed Monday night included: pop corn, cotton candy, balloons and buggy rides.

Museum sale items will be prominently displayed and hawked. These will include: Museum plates, historical sketches and memberships.

And don't forget the fat pigs that will be auctioned off at the Purple Petticoat all during the evening. These pigs are now pastured at the Hondo National Bank, Dan's Drug, Peden's Rexall Drug, and Leinweber's for fattening purposes. "Please feed them when you pass by," Lawrence urged everyone. "This bit of fun means quite a bit of money to the Museum."

Ronnie Mason, KRME disc jockey and entertainer, has said he will drop by the Purple Petticoat and bring his guitar for a song fest. And he might be joined by Hondo Crouch and his guitar since an invitation to attend was made to Crouch this week.

Another attraction planned for the old time saloon will be an election return board so that patrons can keep up on the voting results that day.

Highlighting the entire Museum Celebration Day will be the appearance of Chief Fulton Battise, Tribal Chief of the Alabama-Coushatta Reservation. He will be available for autographs and conversation.

Other entertainment for the afternoon will be provided by the Owl Band opening concert; the Country Squares giving an evening performance; and a country-western band providing a program.

"We are going to have a ball," the chairman told those present Monday night. "And Museum Celebration Day 1972 is going to be a successful fund-raising event."

New payment rates set

Stretching of local citizens' paving dollar to the point where it might allow more residents to share in paved streets was accomplished Tuesday night by the City Council.

Street Superintendent Lloyd Hermes told the Council that several residents had asked him if they could pay for paving by adding $2 or $3 on their utilities. Councilman G. P. Chapman said he thought it would be a good idea.

Mayor Brucks and the Council agreed. So now those persons who cannot afford to pay higher payments may join the paving program by agreeing to pay this amount each month.

Mayor Brucks asked City Attorney Hugh Meyer if liens could be placed against property for curbing and paving payments and Meyer said they could. He was instructed to begin such a practice.

Hermes reported that several residents have signed up for curbing but right now it would be so piece-meal that it wouldn't be worthwhile to the city. He was instructed to study the aspects of a concentrated sign-up drive toward a goal of a large curbing program in the summer of 1973. Elmo Pope said his subdivision area is ready for curbs and gutters and Wesley Breiten has plans for a new sub-division off 32nd street.

Bids were opened on a truck for the Water Department and Jack Winkler submitted the low bid of $2,698. Other bids were Jake Schuehle $2,728 and Economy Motors American $2825.

Welty-Cook nuptials held in San Antonio

At a mid-afternoon ceremony held in the Margarite B. Parker Chapel of Trinity University, San Antonio, on March 25, Miss Cathy Lynn Welty became the bride of Mr. Robert Courtenay Cook. Chaplain Bob Covington was the officiating minister.

Parents of the couple are Major (Ret.) and Mrs. Ray J. Welty of San Antonio and Col. (Ret.) and Mrs. Howard G. Cook of Palos Verdes Peninsula, California. The bride is also the niece of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stiegler of Hondo.

The bride wore a gown of re-embroidered Alencon lace, over candlelight organza, fashioned with a detachable train of the organza which featured lace appliques and edging. High-necked and with a lace bodice, the gown had an empire waistline and Juliet-type long sleeves. The A-line floor-length skirt was also applique with lace. A full-length silk illusion veil was attached to a cluster of lace petals.

The bride's old-fashioned bouquet was of cream-colored roses, stephanotis and apricot-hued baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Miss Kerry Sexton of Orange. Bridesmaids were Mmes. Arthur Skeats, Harry J. Stein, Jr., and Lloyd Brooks and Misses Lisa Kaufman and Kerry Sexton.

The bride's attendants wore gowns of candlelight and apricot, with ribbon insertion through lace appliques and skirts of matching crepe. Each carried a single long-stemmed rose in harmonizing shades.

This week

That's all she wrote

by Edna McDade

If you missed our local Industrial Show, Hondo's participation in the annual Texas Industrial Week program, you missed a good show and an opportunity to learn about the various industries which contribute so much to our community's economy. How they have grown since that first show we held some years ago in the building now occupied by The Style Shop!

Although no record was kept of visitors during the 4-days of open exhibits, I accounted for at least one appreciative among-those-present. An effort such as this takes time, money, cooperation, and a lot of leg, brawn and brain work, enough of which must have been provided to put on exhibits that merit our collective (and individual) thanks. This is by way of adding mine to the whole.

The displays were attractive, the booklets distributed were informative, the charts prepared and presented were factually impressive. I hope enough Scouts availed themselves of the free booklet on "Soil and Water Conservation Activities for Scouts" (USDA SCS) to begin thinking about the serious responsibility that must be theirs in the not too distant future if we are to provide what KENNETH E. GRANT, Administrator SCS, calls "Our Spaceship Earth" with a healthful, productive, and enjoyable environment for its inhabitants.

We'll be counting on you, Scouts! "A Scout is" Remember? *

What a poet calls "the guilelessness of little boys" was clearly brought home to me this week. I've decided that I must look too much like the accompanying picture for comfort but it's one of the "occupational hazards."

WARREN GRELL, 6-year old son of the WILLIAM G's, came up to me and said "Hey, I know you because you're always in The Paper, and I've still got my Easter rabbits, white with grey ears!" (Was he trying to tell me something?)

It was Warren's mother who had placed ads, last year and this, in The Herald, and who sold lots and lots of Easter bunnies. *

Later that same day, Mrs. CLINTON MUMME introduced herself and told me that her 5-year old nephew, DENNIS HEIRS, always looked at my column picture and wanted to know what I said.

It seems he thinks that I look "exactly like his Great-aunt LISETTA BURGER" who is 92.

From all the good things I have heard about her, I feel flattered and I shall make it a point to meet her - soon I hope - and we might just work out a later report as we compare notes! *

If you are a do-it yourself-er, you might like to have this World War I recipe for Fly Paper, as supplied by Bulletin 15 Hq. S.O.S.

I found it in a yellowed copy of The Stars & Stripes, issue Apr. 18, 1919, which Dr. O.B. Taylor brought home with him and which he has presented to the "library" which our Medina County Museum is accumulating. (Who will help the good cause?)

"Take one pound of resin, 5/8 pint castor oil, mix thoroughly, heat until liquid and spread on 12 sheets of issue Manila wrapping paper and the job is done." (This is not a recipe for Kansas-made cognac, the writer cautioned.)

DOC, who was with Field Hospital 359, 90th Div., "autographed" the paper thus: "Left St. Nazare, France, 27 May, 1919, 2:20 p.m. aboard the USS Kentuckian, on our way back to USA., arrived in New York, Sat. 7 June at noon- Distance St. Nazare to N.Y. 3,178 miles."

Now we can all join in wishing Doc a Happy 53rd anniversary of his safe return home to Hondo and ask him "When is it gonna rain some more?" *

Some 33 years ago, The HERALD had a Quihi correspondent (initials C.W.) who could wax eloquently poetic on occasion.

Such an occasion followed a prolonged drought in July, 1939:

"The long drought is broken, thanks to the Good Lord who has again revealed his Mighty Hand. Again, there was music in the air, more harmonious than any radio concert. There was a sight greater than the Alps, the Italy monuments and the Majestic Ocean--although there were no white-sailed boats skirting the Horizon, but only some white-tailed chickens frolicking in the water and weeds of Quihi."

The consensus now is that we're about ready for the Good Lord to reveal his Mighty Hand again and give those white-tailed chickens some water to frolic in and our crops enough moisture to encourage them on to later harvest!

Barbecue, klobase, sauerkraut, and homemade pastries are the order of the day.

Visitor admires wedding dress

This pretty young miss hails from Carrizo Springs. Her name is Karen Jackson and she "just had to feel of the merchandise" for the photographer when she visited the Medina County Museum with a group of her friends. This wedding display set in the old-timey lamp-lit room is one of the attractions of the Museum, which many visitors will view on May 6 when the third annual Museum Celebration Day holds forth. All county residents (and anyone living outside the county for that matter) are urged to donate items that might be sold at auction on that day to benefit the museum. 4-H Round-up contests today

The Medina County 4-H Roundup Demonstration Contests will be held at the Hondo High School Thursday, April 13 at 7:00. Fifty-four 4-H members will participate in 23 different contests. Junior and senior winners from each contest will represent Medina County at the District 4-H Roundup on April 29 at Southwest Texas Junior College, Uvalde.

In addition to these contestants, Medina County will also send a junior and senior team of 4 members to the soil judging contest and the rifle contest.

Senior district winners will represent District 13 at the State Roundup in College Station June 6-8.

Medina County 4-H adult leaders from the nine clubs will be contest judges. The public is invited to attend and give these 4-H contestants their support.

Patrolman approved for PD

Police protection in the City of Hondo will be increased by an additional patrolman somewhere around the first of June and a little after that the Department will add the wheels of an extra car.

Chief Jerry Williamson presented the need for such a man and a car at the Tuesday night Council meeting and was told it would be possible after June.

Williamson was instructed to begin taking applications from interested persons with June 1 as a projected hiring date. The new police car would be purchased after that date.

The Chief gave as his reasons for needing an additional man and car: he would free one man for surveillance, (much of this is now being done on the patrolmen's own time), can work more traffic (now patrolmen are having to double up when anyone is off duty, sick, on vacation or any other reason such as going to school to earn certification).

"Schools, Gary Aircraft and Universal Rundle all turn out at about 3:30 p.m. and we just do not have the personnel to handle all of traffic," Williamson said. "And on top of that many of the funerals are scheduled about that time."

Williamson proposed to hire the additional man at a beginning salary of $425 per month and said the new police car would cost in the neighborhood (estimated) of $3500 to $3800.

At the present time the Police Department budget runs approximately $3000 per month.

"When we get an extra man we propose to have our surveillance man work part time in uniform and part time in plain clothes," Williamson said. "We also plan to increase our public relations program of appearing before interested groups to better acquaint them with the problems of law enforcement and how they can help."

Hondo men charged in SA

Charged with felony transportation of illegal aliens, Francisco Lara-Garza, 45, and Jose Garza-Gonzales, 33, both of Hondo, were jailed in San Antonio Tuesday in lieu of $15,000 bonds each after appearing before U.S. Magistrate John P. Giles.

Each was charged with transporting two Mexican aliens from a point near Hondo to the Medina County seat last Sunday, for alleged transportation to Dallas.

Judge Giles scheduled an examining trial for the suspects at 10 a.m. next Tuesday, April 18.

Test driver killed

Tragedy struck swiftly at the Automotive Research Test Track near D'Hanis Sunday afternoon when the car being tested overturned killing the driver.

Melton Frausto of Yancey died in the wreckage of his test car after the rubber came off the tires while the car was traveling at a high rate of speed.

As the rubber came off Frausto lost control of the car and it rolled over several times, Sheriff Charles J. Hitzfelder, said.

The accident happened at 1:15 p.m. Sunday. Justice of the Peace Harold Herring pronounced Frausto dead at the scene.

What is it?

You can better believe that many a person has asked Fritz Leinweber this question concerning his "pre-electric" fan. The fan operates from a gas burner, sitting next to the base of the fan in this picture. Fritz bought the antique at a recent auction and says he will have it on display at the Antique Auction Museum Celebration Day on May 6. Don't miss seeing it.

Anybody can make a truck small. That's not the problem. The secret is building a truck that's just exactly small enough. Big enough to do the job, and then some. Small enough to do it economically. That's what's made the Datsun L11 Hustler America's number one selling small truck. For eleven years, we've been learning about exactly what America wants in a small truck. And we've been delivering it. The Datsun L11 Hustler has an overhead cam engine powerful enough for highway speeds and back road hauling. Small enough for maximum economy.

The big six-foot all-steel load bed is just the right size for 9 out of 10 truck owners. The 1,440-pound gross load capacity is perfect for almost everyone's needs, from recreation to heavy labor. What's more, we back up the L11 Hustler with a nationwide computerized parts distribution system and a factory-trained service staff.

Is it any wonder Datsun is America's number one selling small truck?

Exhibits wind up week

The only out-of-town person to register at Radio Station KRME's booth at the industrial exhibit was Henry Alvarado of Knippa, and he won an album.

In fact there were four winners during the week. In addition to Alvarado, Mrs. Ray Hickey, Huber Hermes and Felice Dominguez were winners.

Registration at the KRME booth was just one indication of the fine turnout at the Industrial Week event.

The exhibit wound up the week and those who had displays included: Universal Rundle, Medina County Agricultural Agent, Southwest Bell Telephone, the U.S. Weather Radar Station, A&R Electric, Soil Conservation Service, KRME, Anvil Herald, Texas Employment Commission, ETSCO, Ltd., Medina Electric Cooperative, Hondo Independent School District, Texas National Guard, Medina County Hunting, St. John's School, Gary Aircraft Corporation, Hondo Implement Co.

Exhibit also shown by: Rene Aelvoet, Randolph Air Force Ground Control Approach Site and Hondo National Bank.

"We thought Hondo observed a terrific Texas Industrial Week," said Chairman Burnis Lawrence, "and it could not have been possible without the cooperation of everyone concerned. On behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, let me say "Thanks" to all who pitched in and made this event a success. We sincerely hope that this week our residents know more about local industry and its importance to our economy than they did two weeks ago."

Library Week

I, George L. Brucks, Mayor of the City of Hondo, do hereby declare the week of April 16th through April 22nd 1972 to be observed as Library Week to coincide with National Library Week and as a means of celebrating our City Library's Birthday in the Public Library on April 17, 1972.

Subscribed and attested to by me this 13th of April, in the year of Our Lord 1972, George L. Brucks Mayor The City of Hondo, Texas

B-TEAM TAKES WIN IN TOURNEY

Hondo's Owl "B" team took consolation honors in the Uvalde "B" team tournament over the weekend at Uvalde.

The Junior Owls lost their opening game 19-4 to Eagle Pass in a game marked by errors. But they bounced back in the second game to capture the consolation championship when Gordie Bohmfalk tossed a No-hitter and the home nine downed Crystal City 10-0.

The win and loss left Hondo's "B" team with a 3-3 record. Hondo plays travel to Knippa Friday.

"B" team home games are free and the public is invited to attend.

Owls whip Aggies

The Hondo Owls played their best baseball of the season Tuesday night as they posted a 4-1 over Poteet on the local diamond. Robert Blackshear held the Aggies to just three hits as the Owls scored all four of their runs in the first two innings and then coasted to their 5th win of the season against five losses.

Tom Hill led the Hondo attack with two hits. The Owls managed only five hits off losing pitcher, Tony Sanchez. For the first time this season, the Owls played tight defensive baseball committing only one error in the game.

The Owl "B" Team also posted a win as they downed the Uvalde "B" team 8-5 for their fourth win against three losses.

for anyone wishing to make a contribution. Just contact me."

Players have been assigned to teams and practice will get underway soon, with league action set for about the time school is out.

Devine wallops Owls 12-6

The Devine Warhorses powered their way to a 12-6 District 28-2A Baseball win over the Hondo Owls Thursday night on the Hondo diamond.

Paul Jette blasted a home run, doubled and singled to account for three of his teams thirteen hits off Hondo pitching. Lewis also hit safely twice for Devine.

Owls batters got three hits, all singles, from Gary Walch and two hits each from Tom Hill and Eric Grant. Hill's two hits were for extra bases, one a double and one a single.

Two teams tie for first place

High handicaps played a big part in the men and women Pro-Am held last week at the Hondo Golf Course.

In fact they brought about first and second place tie with 16 under par.

Some 56 players entered the tournament won by these two teams: Team 1--Leon Mangold, Bob O'Day, Ralph Tschirhart, Biddy Vincent; Team 2--Vigil Krenmueler, C.D. Sadler, Richard Torres and Gladys Williams.

Chapters to meet Tuesday

Texas Agricultural Products representatives will present the program at a joint meeting of the Hondo Young Farmer and Young Home-maker Chapters Tuesday night April 18 at seven o'clock in the Hondo High School cafeteria. Speakers are Fred Halpin, Patsy Kincaid and Mike Lowprice.

"Stretch Your Food Dollar" is the topic. It will include a discussion and demonstration of food products, farm-to-market to table.

A covered dish supper, supplied by members, will be served at seven with the program to follow. All YF and YH members and their spouses are invited.
